April 2018

We hope you had a restful and enjoyable Spring Break! April is Autism Awareness month and we will be doing several activities throughout the month to recognize the children and families in the Tiger Room in which Autism is an important part of their lives. We will send home information regarding the activities as they arise. The first that we will be doing will be wearing blue on Thursday, April 5th. The nationwide and worldwide day of Autism Awareness recognition is April 2nd, however, that is the first day back from Spring Break and it might be a hectic day for everyone! So the Tigers are doing our own Light It Up Blue on the 5th. Please have your child (and your family) wear blue on Thursday! We will also be doing some fun giveaways so keep an eye for those as well!

We will be having parent/teacher conferences in April as well. A sign-up sheet will be in the classroom as the dates for conferences get nearer. For children moving on to Kindergarten, we will be holding meetings and/or IEPs with the school in which they will be attending and we do not typically hold conferences with these families. Please visit with Erin about the school district IEPs if questions arise!

Thank you for sharing your child with us and we hope you have a wonderful April!

Erin, Karen, Darcie and Sterling
